The form is a 5-generation partners chart. It features a central horizontal line representing a partnership, with two boxes above it for the names of the partners. From each partner box, a vertical line descends to a box for their children. From each of these boxes, a vertical line descends to a horizontal line representing a partnership, which then branches into two vertical lines leading to boxes for the names of the partners in the next generation. This structure repeats for three more generations, creating a total of five generations. Each box is designed to hold a name and two lines of additional information, as detailed in the instructions. At the bottom center, there is a decorative box labeled 'Our Children'.
